

Fe y Alegría teachers as role models

They multiply learning and educational innovations, thanks to their presence in other schools.

They are professionals.

They have an active role in the lives of the communities.

They identify with the educational mission of Fe y Alegría.

They are jointly responsible for the management of the school.

They are permanently trained and reflect on their practices.

They show openness to innovation and to the evaluation of their work.

They are committed to the safety and development of the students.

